

	Page.
The governor * * * empowered to determine the validity of elections for sheriffs, and to issue new writs, &c.—February, 1777, ch. 19, sec. 3,	135
On such disputes, or on complaints against officers, they may summon witnesses, and enforce their attendance, or direct depositions, as in the general court—1786, ch. 22, sec. 2,	237
They shall allow the party complained against a copy of the complaint, and give notice of the time of inquiry—1786, ch. 22, sec. 2,	237
If the party after such notice does not attend, the inquiry may be made in his absence—1786, ch. 22, sec. 2,	237
They may adjudge the costs and expenses on such controverted election to be paid by either party—1786, ch. 22, sec. 3,	237
They may adjudge the costs and expenses on complaints against the officers of government to be paid by either party, or by the public—1786, ch. 22, sec. 3,	238
They may compel payment of such costs in the same manner as the general court—1786, ch. 22, sec. 3,	238
The governor empowered from time to time to make and establish such rules and orders for the direction of the treasurers in issuing their tittlings or orders for warrants, and for the conduct of the examiner-general and the registers in their respective offices, and for the behaviour of surveyors, as they shall think proper—November, 1781, ch. 20, sec. 6,	170
To transmit to the register of the land-office, and to the examiner on the eastern shore, certified copies of such rules, &c.—1795, ch. 61, sec. 8,	325
The governor to appoint an examiner-general for the examination of certificates of survey—November, 1781, ch. 20, sec. 7,	171
To appoint an examiner for the eastern shore—1795, ch. 61, sec. 3,	323
To appoint a judge of the land-office for the eastern shore—1795, ch. 61, sec. 5,	324
The governor may remit the whole, or a part of a forfeited recognizance, on the case being stated in writing by the court where it was forfeited, and a recommendation for a remission—April, 1782, ch. 42, sec. 1,	179
The members remitting such recognizance shall have the case entered at large on the proceedings, and subscribe their names thereto—1782, ch. 42, sec. 1,	179
They may remit, (under the same limitations,) any fine, penalty or forfeiture, provided the amount is certain, and not in the discretion of the court—1782, ch. 42, sec. 3,	180
They may remit the whole or a part of any fine by a militia court-martial, on stating and signing the case, and the reasons for a remission—1782, ch. 42, sec. 5,	181
A copy of the assessment or rate on each county to be transmitted annually by the clerks to the governor * * *—1794, ch. 53, sec. 2,	307
To have a suitable number of blank marriage licenses delivered to the treasurers, and to keep them provided with such licenses from time to time—1797, ch. 38, sec. 2, 6,	345